Each competitor must then remain flat footed and perfectly still on their block until their number is called, i.e. their whole foot in contact with the block. any swimmer who is not "flat-footed" when their number is called shall be disqualified, unless they return to the end of the pool, touch and then proceed with the race.

Stroking

In handicap freestyle events a swimmer nominating to swim a stroke other than overarm crawl must swim the nominated stroke for the entire race. In butterfly, backstroke and breaststroke events, they must swim the nominated stroke for the entire race and may be disqualified for incorrect stroking.
